Description

A yacht of 1994 maintained to a very good condition by owner , returned to charter boat and has many refits done on her and lots of extras have been added.

She a a great looking "old style" Flybridge Yacht which has the sign of the Rizzardi group, which reflects the quality and perfection of that shipyard.

Our Posillipo has been fully refurbished in the interior of her , with many new additions of accessories and parts and lots of electronics updates and installations. She was supoosed to operate as a proffecional boat , but finally owner decided to keep her upon his private use and only , and she is been kept at an extremely good condition for a boat of her age.

She is one of a kind we could say and for future buyers and lovers of this Italian shipyard she is a trust worthy representative .
